

September 14, 2019
9:30 am to 4:30 pm
Idaho State Capital
Senate Wing

HP Boise Amateur Radio Club
AB7HP

presents

Amateur Radio on the Go

*A conference for SOTA, Campers, RV'ers,
Antenna Restricted Homeowners, Temporary
Communicators, Field Day aficionados, and Emergency Communicators.*

Room WW-53

9:30 AM: PORTABLE/TEMPORARY ANTENNAS

John Kernkamp, WB4YJT

Portable and temporary antenna options for Camping, RV, HOA (stealth), emergency.

11:00 AM: A SIMULATED HF EMERGENCY COMMUNICATIONS DEPLOYMENT USING A HARD CASE RADIO

Mike Dunlap, K7MYU

Learn how a hard case radio can be an advantage in a deployment. This presentation illustrates the set up of a field station capable of supporting two operators in the field for over a week.

12:30 PM LUNCH AND MINGLE

1:30 PM: cafeteria (WW14): Demo by Dan Marler about i

2:30 PM: SUMMITS ON THE AIR (SOTA)

Jeff Watson, KF7NOZ

SOTA requires extremely portable stations as you have to carry the entire station to the top of the mountain. What does it take, and what are the rewards?

4:00 PM: GO KIT FOR FIELD OPERATIONS

Don Lynn, ND7L

What do you need for field operation besides your radio.

All day in the cafeteria demos of portable radios and antenna.

Room WW-54

9:30 AM: WINLINK
Rick Briggs, KL7BR

Winlink allows Hams to send and receive email with non-Hams using a radio connection.

11:00 AM: A REPORT FROM THE IDAHO OFFICE OF EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

Aaron Blake, KI7LOQ

How does the Idaho Office of Emergency Management provide support before and after disasters, including emergency communication tools? Find out here!

.

12:30 PM LUNCH AND MINGLE

out D-Star, DMR, Fusion and other digital Communications

2:30 PM: EMERGENCY COMMUNICATIONS AND ARES IN SOUTHWEST IDAHO

Dan Woodall, N7DKW

An overview of the ways Hams are serving the public in Southwest Idaho, where we are going, and how we can improve.

4:00 PM: MORE POWER

Wayne Martin, KF7SLB

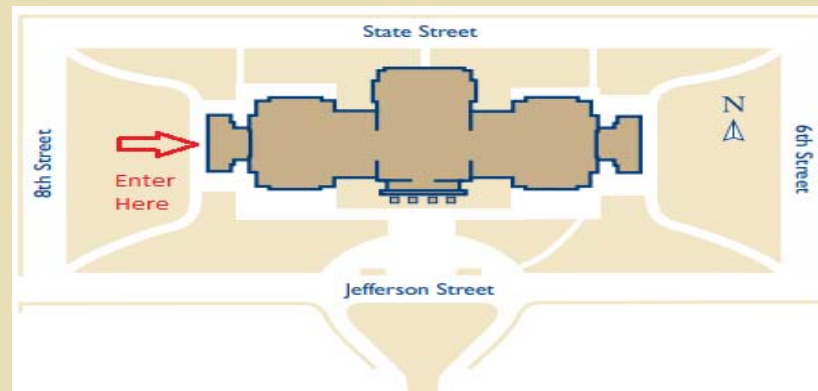

Emergency power; choices and options. Information about battery types and their trade-offs for emergency power.

anas and a chance to build a portable 20 meter "go" antenna

Parking

Street parking is free on Saturday. There are parking garages and lots at 8th & State or Capital & Idaho or 5th & Bannock.

Entrance

Doors open at 9am. Use the ground floor west entrance and follow the signs

Food and Drink

Food and drink in dining hall only.

Free Coffee is provided in the dining hall.

The two hour lunch break allows time to patronize the many downtown restaurants a few blocks away. Or bring your own lunch and mingle with the other Hams.

